Biography

Ecstatic is the new euphoric duo created by Wouter & Jordy, two close friends from The Netherlands. To create the most euphoric feelings, giving people goosebumps with their music is their highest goal.

With improving their sound in the last couple of years, Ecstatic is now ready to show their sound with the world. Their first tracks "Gold (Bootleg)", "You're Not Alone" and "Time To Dance" have already been supported by several colleagues and played in podcasts like The Magic Show and the XXlerator Podcast. They are also responsible for this year's anthem of Promised Land Festival together with Aeros. Besides that they already performed at Defqon 1 2016! And this is only the beginning!
